INDIANA STATE SENTINEL.

WILLIAM J. BROWN, Editor.

INDIANAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 12, 1850.

Newspapers.

Every man should take a newspaper. If he is a pachelor it will serve to cheer him in the hours of It will, to some extent, smooth the ruying without hope in this world, or that which is to are not doing them injustice. be to them like the shower to the drooping and wilt- endorsed by his son the publisher. At least his un ed foliage. It will lead their infant-minds to high qualified denial now should be sufficient. The State and noble aspirations. It will teach them the nature Sentinel of June the 19th, 1850, contains the followand character of the government under which they live. It will give them the history of the political men and measures of the day; and, in our country, it is a beautiful mirror, in which they can see and contrast our happy form of government with the bloated and festering systems of Europe.

It publishes the passing events, and predicts the future by the history of the past. It is a moving panorama of the world, upon which all should look This is not only the age, but ours the country of progress. The sun shines upon no portion of this habitable globe where there is so much intelligence among the great mass of the people as in this country. This is to be attributed to our liberal political institutions—to our system of Does he mean that the editor is pledged to favor the reeducation, and to the universal and happy influence of the newspaper press.

The press is the great centre from which the rays particular but mean and contemptible in spirit. of light and knowledge radiate. The newspaper, wet from the press, takes the wings of the morning his desk, and the statesman in his study that they are within the reach of all. We have no puffs of the editor of a new paper in this city. What odious stamp act. The fountain of knowledge is interest has he in that concern, that makes him so open to every one-hone so poor that he cannot come lavish of his praises? Is it an interest he takes in and drink. We again repeat, every man should take the prosperity of the Democratic party; or rather is Library, and for which I beg you will accept my sincere a newspaper, read it and preserve it. Like old wine, it not an interest growing out of a hatred to the self and posterity.

The Struggle Ended.

boundaries, as a State.

and fixing the boundary of Texas; and ment for Utah, without the proviso.

These comprised Mr. Clay's omnibus, which was upset in the Senate.

slave trade in the District of Columbia are not as St. Louis, recently visited our city, on business conyet decided. We hope they will be acted upon in nected with the organization of the corps of Enginthe right spirit.

Col. James H. Lane.

ment for the truth of these statements."

the whole letter. It will be published in our next. line shall be completed as it most certainly will be ly paid a visit to the Upper Wabash valley, the health It will be a bitter dose for our friend Defrees, but in a few years, the greatest facilities will be afforded of which he says has been unusually good the present he will have to swallow it.

ness connected with the complete furnishing of an office ready for the Convention. Large additions of Sandusky—26 hours between St. Louis and Clarks.

West. It will be but 12 hours run between St. Louis and the importance of good roads roads running from this point to the interior. They have completed a plank road Sandusky—26 hours between St. Louis and Clarks.

West. It will be but 12 hours run between St. Louis and Indianapolis—24 hours between St. Louis and Clarks.

Bosworth, late of this city, than whom there is no better the importance of good roads roads running from this point to the interior. They have completed a plank road.

Sandusky—26 hours between St. Louis and Clarks.

Presbyterian Church on Thursday morning at 11 will be occupied with the anniversaries of the different ! nevolent societies.

The community are invited to attend.

The invited the attention of the public to Messrs. Seaton & Holman's new goods in our last This week we invite attention to Horn's. Seaton & Holman and the Horns know a thing or two. They have large assortments and they advertise. Ben has gone to California for a supply of the dust, and Henry is a little too modest to brag, so we must help him out a little. See the advertisements of both es- or some other point in the East; but in two years it

Or We regret that Gov. Wright has been called our next. to Rockville, his former residence, on account of the sickness of his son.

The South Bend Register.

Mr. Brown well knows and has known that the ro-or, to which we alluded in the most delicate manner s and has been current in the State, ever since he be came the publisher of the Sentinel. Thus far, his silence has lent confirmation to it; and it seems singular that he has never thought it worth while to correct it, until upthe Sentinel."-South Bend Register.

If the editor of the Register had been as anxious to notice the denial of Mr. Brown as the false charge that life in which he has chosen to walk. It has been urged against him, he would not have adwill teach him to mend his ways, and to mend his ded insult to injury by making the above statement. It will point him to the Hymeneal altar. He even now makes a lawyer's, or rather a pettifogand learn him to worship at that holy shrine. If he ger's quibble on the word special, by placing it in reads the newspapers, and follows their precepts, italics, when any sensible man would have known it to whether married or single, he will be a happy man; mean, that if Gen. Cass and Mr. Bright be indeed Provided, always, that he pays the printer; for, un- Democrats, they could not fail to take some interest less he does, he is a conscience-stricken sinner, liv- in Democratic newspapers, particularly of such as

But above all, if he is a married man, he The editor of the Register is without the exshould have a newspaper. It will endear him to his cuse he alleges. His old master, John D. Defrees, his fireside. It will give him the news made the insinuation against the Sentinel in almost from all nations, without his seeking for it at the the precise language of the Register, which was hotel or the grog-shop. If he has children, it will promptly repelled by the editor at Washington and ing denial. We wish the editor of the Register not to overlook it on this occasion. He evidently feels bad enough already, and we do not publish it to increase his opinion of the injustice of his acts, and we conclude this article by saving, that, if he wishes to become fully acquainted with the pecuniary standing of the publisher of this paper, he will be gratified by a full exhibit, when he comes to the Convention. But here is the denial of the Sentinel published only nineteen days after it passed into the present publishers hands. The editor, in the Sentinel of the 19th of June last, in answer to Defrees, said:

> What does the sapient editor of the Journal mean by intimating that the hand of the Hon. Jesse D. Brighit is ally had any thing to do with the purchase of the Senti- ing the growing trade of that country." nel ? If so, the statement is not only false in in every cerned, the writer of this article is committed for and flies to the uttermost parts of the earth, and car- old Joe Lane against the world, if nominated by a ries consolation and comfort to the men of the plough, Democratic Convention. The Sentinel is for the good reason for doing so, for its friends will require the anvil and the loom, as well as to the merchant at Democratic nominee, and will take ground for no a reason.

man for the Presidency until a nomination is made. In this country, newspapers are published so cheap The editor of the Register is quite lavish of his

The Indiana Journal is pouring out its sympa-After a struggle of ten months the Democratic thies for fear some indignity may be used against platform on the subject of slavery, as first laid down Mr. Seward, of New York, by the people of the at the ever memorable Baltimore Convention, from South. Does the Indiana Journal endorse his "higher the pen of the lamented Silas Wright, of New York- law'doctrines? It seems from the editor's remarks that the doctrine of non-intervention-has been fully sus- such are his sympathies. His position, with regard tained and vindicated. The same doctrines of the to Democrats who applaud Mr. Clay for his course Democratic party in 1848 have been fully acquisced on the slavery question, is, that they should support in by both Houses of Congress. The Wilmot pro- him for President. That position carried out, would viso has been voted down in the popular branch of now compel the editor of the Journal to support the National Legislature, and California admitted as Seward for the same office. We have no sympathies a State by the triumphant majority of 150 to 56. with Mr. Clay on the questions of national policy The difficulty between Texas and New Mexico has that divide the Democratic and Whig parties, and been settled, and we trust peace and harmony will consequently can never support him for President as The question of colonization, as the best means of supagain reign triumphant in this land of freedom and long as there is a Democrat in the field. But whenthe home of the oppressed. Who would not be proud ever the editor of the Journal is able to make an isof his Democracy under such circumstances—and sue between his favorite Mr. Seward and Mr. Clay with respect to the efficiency of the British blockading who would not also be proud of those of our whig as the only opposing candidates for President, Old opponents who broke away from the tramels of par- Hal is our man with both hands up. The Journal, ty, ascended our platform, and who performed such however, need not be alarmed about Mr. Clav. He good service? The following bills have passed both will no doubt soon leave the arena of political life, and ere long "life's fitful fever" with him will be The bill admitting California, with her present over, and were he to retire now he would retire with The bill for the formation of a territorial govern- loved our glorious Union, and that was willing, if sell each other; and that trading factories, model farms, ment in New Mexico, without the Wilmot proviso, need be, to sacrifice himself in the opinions of such training the Natives from slave trading; that, in my The bill for the formation of a territorial govern- nal, for his country.

Central Railroad-Illinois.

William S. Waite, Esq., President of the Illinois The fugitive slave bill, and the bill abolishing the section of the Central Railroad, from Terre Haute to nected with the organization of the corps of Engin-eers, and the location of the road. While here, we prove a great acquisition to Liberia: just the kind of understand, he examined our roads being construct-The publisher of this paper has received, by the ed, and was highly pleased with the system of con- thing to me about a settlement at Grand Cape Mount last mail, a scathing letter from the above gentle- nection by the union track, of the different lines, as man, in relation to the insinuation and charge of the well as with the permanent manner of the construceditor of the Journal that the beautiful sword pre- tion of our balasted heavy iron roads. He speaks sented to him by the officers and men of the 5th regi- with entire confidence of the construction of the ment was procured by his instigation and partly with road through Illinois, at an early day. Says the peo- I will not complain by the booming of cannon, at Fort the auspices of W. J. Brown, now in Congress; during remaining seven will be finished this fall. his own money. The gallant Colonel repels the ple on the route, as well as the citizens of St. Louis. charge as basely false. He says-"It is false and are alive to the importance of the work. The Enfalse as hell that I ever, either directly or indirectly gineers, we learn are now actively engaged in the can Independence. contributed one cent-that I had anything to do with field locating the road. With the construction of the inscription-vou can refer to the officers named this road, the Terre Haute road, and the Bedefon-(Lt. Col. May, Maj. W. Myers and Adi't. Lord) as taine road, we will have a direct and continuous line well as to every officer and man of that gallant regi- through Illinois, and Indiana, to the Ohio line, there to intersect the Pittsburgh, Cleaveland, Sandusky, Co-The lateness of the hour prevents us from giving lumbus, and Dayton lines. When this great central The publisher is absent at Cincinnati, on busi- West. It will be but 12 hours run between St. Lou- "The citizens of this place have not been asleep as to heavy, from year to year. Messas. Brown —In your paper of a recent date, is to be observed, under the head of "President of the Principal of the Deaf and Dumb Institution of this State, we have an interesting account of the mannement of James G. Read, of Old Clark.

Messas. Brown —In your paper of a recent date, is to be observed, under the head of "President of The Convention" the names of a few, of the multitude of Indiana's distinguished citizens. Permit the addition of will be fully sustained by the democracy of Indiana for another name—that of James G. Read, of Old Clark. National Convention of Officers of Institutions for the education of the Deaf and Dumb, sent to us from the city of New York, where the Convention was held. The next Convention, he says, will be held in one year from this time, and will meet at Hartford in one year from this time, and will meet at Hartford will be held on this side of the Alleghanies, most See also Craighead & Browning's advertisements. probably at Indianapolis. We shall take much pleasure in publishing Mr. Brown's interesting letter in Interesting Letter of President Roberts of Liberia.

We are favored, by the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, to whom the following letter is addressed, with the privilege of giving it publication in our columns There are some important points in it, which should on the eye of the starting of a rival paper. We are bound however now to believe him when he says that "neither Bright nor Cass have any special interest in Great Britain on the continent of Africa, and their Great Britain on the continent of Africa, and their desire to open up that country as a field for trade and ommerce. Ever true to their commercial interests, the English wish to grasp the fertile part of Africa and make it dependant on the English crown. No labor will be spared to attach Africa to Eng-

But has not the United States something to do with the future destinies and history of the world? Shall she, with her great political power, excelled by none in moral power, remain an inactive spectator of the movements of Europe on the African question? We think not. As a nation we have a claim on Africa. tained under the management of the Chapmans. The In the name of her sons who are amongst us, we Editor takes his stand upon the "platform of constitushould secure a home for them, and, by their aid.

Two years ago the friends of Liberia, in this State, commenced a system of petition and corresndence, inviting the attention of the statesmen the nation to the subject of a National plan of Coloand what we rejoice in is the fact, that our own State has nobly taken the lead and kept it. The "joint esolutions" of our General Assembly on the subject

Our friends in the South, have taken advantage of this favorable expression of public sentiment, and have introduced the Bryant proposition, to aid the government in the work of establishing "a line plainly discernable in the recent transfer of the Sentinel? lines of transport to ply between this country and the coast of Africa, facilitating emigration and absorb-

This plan of transports is now before Congress, in the cause of democracy. - Jeffersonian. and the friends of the measure are watching its fate So far as Gen. Cass and the Presidency are con- with intense interest. The destiny of thousands of and the man that opposes it must be able to give a > GOVERNMENT HOUSE, Monnovia, July 4th, 1850. DEAR SIE :- I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your esteemed favor of February 18th, by the schooner "David C. Foster," also a box containing a copy of your State Laws, and sandry valuable and interesting public documents-which have been placed in our

It is now apparent—Liberia has fully demonstrated the fact—that African Colonization is the most effectual the African slave trade, and for the introduction-which pressing, or rather of abolishing the slave trade, has al-Government, or British merchants were to establish fac- Courier. tories, for legitimate trade, and model farms at points where the slave trade is carried on?

I have invariably answered to the effect, that the withdrawal of the squadron, thereby throwing open the traffic, would be most disastrous to the future welfare of Africa. And that so long as a market remains, and perour blessing, as a man that loved his country-that sons will resort to the coast for slaves the Natives will men as Seward and the editor of the Indiana Jour- opinion, the surest plan is colonization. Secure the political jurisdiction of the country, send out a Colony, organize a government, and the slave trade must cease. This, however, Great Britain cannot do-she has not the men for such an enterprise. Europeans cannot stand fender of our National Political creed, and we, with the climate; nor has she Africans to spare from her West thousands, wish him and the publisher, all sorts of suc-

I have not yet seen much of your friend, Mr. Finley. who is, at present, located at Caldwell. I have seen enough of him, however, to convince me of his intelliemigrants we want-men of intelligence and enterprise, who are determined to be free. He has not said any I don't know, but I think he is pleased with Caldwell. It will afford me much pleasure, sir, to render him any istance in my power. I have written, sir, in great haste, having but little has been greatly improved in mechanical execution and time in which to write, as the vessel by which this goes sails soon. I have been disturbed also—of this however to none in the State. The political department is under Norris Battery, saluting the Flag of the United States. You would be astonished to witness here the interest manifested by the citizens on the anniversary of American State may acknowledge with pride the Sentinel as their

I must close this letter, sir, as my time is up I have the honor to be Dear sir, your ob't humble servant, J. J. ROBERTS. REV. J. MITCHELL.

Prosperity of the city of Lafayette. The editor of the Richmond Palladium has recent-office ready for the Convention. Large additions of Sandusky-26 hours between St. Louis and Cleave- to Dayton, a distance of some ten miles, and are making II We have already noticed the improved tone of the type have just been received, and the Sentinel can now boast one of the best Job Offices in the city. Call and try us.

Sandusky—26 hours between St. Louis and Pittsburg; 42 hours between St. Louis and Philadelphia; 46 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 42 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 43 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 44 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 45 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 46 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 47 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 48 hours between St. Louis and Boston; 50 hours between St. Louis and Bosto by few, and only to be acquired in such service.

[For the Indiana State Sentinel.]

Matured in judgement; rich in experience; let the name of Mr. Read be submitted, and old Clark will congratulate herself that she has furnished him that could best work and best agree." OLD CLARK. Sept. 3d, 1850.

Opinions of the Indiana Press. We have received two numbers of the Semi-Weekly tate Sentinel since it has passed into the hands of the esses. Browns. We like the tone of its articles, and are well satisfied with the principles by which it is to be governed in its political course, as laid down in its prospectus—from which the following is an extract:

"In politics it will be thoroughly and radically Democratic, and will maintain the principles of the great na-tional Democratic party, unmixed with any new isms or etrines whatever. Its mission will be to proclaim truth and combat error—to preserve the union of the States and the union of the Democratic party. It will endeavor to allay sectional prejudices and cultivate that pirit of amity and justice which is the true basis of our Pursuing such a course, it commends itself strongly to the favor of all friends of the Union, and especially to the Democratic party; and we hope it may be well sustained .- Franklin, Johnson Co. Examiner.

THE STATE SENTINEE .- We have received the se cond number of this paper, as published by Austin H. Brown, the new proprietor. William J. Brown is the Editor, and judging from the number before us, bids fair to sustain the high reputation which the Sentinel attional liberty," and denounces in equally severe terms, the fanaties at the North, and the traitors at the South propagate our beloved republicanism and revered -who are recklessly endangering the Union, and under- as smiling as a May morning .- Lajayette Courier. ining the foundations of human freedom by their ruinis ultraism and selfishness .- Noble Co. Observer.

ITWe have received the first and second numbers of the Semi-weekly Sentinel, under the new arrangement. It is conducted with decided ability, and, in our opinion, has lost none of its interest by the change, (and that nization, and hitherto success has crowned their la-bors, for the nation is fully ripe for the movement; the democrats have heretofore worked for him, and he ntends in future to labor for them. We wish abundant ecess to all concerned :- Crawfordsville Review.

STATE SENTINEL .- We notice that this paper at th lose of the present volume passes into the hands of of African Colonization having been published, with Hon. W. J. Brown, who will be the Editor, and his son, expressions of much favor, in the leading journals of A. H. Brown, Publisher. The Chapmans have been champions in the cause of Democracy. They have batour own country and have found their way to Europe tled nobly—fought bravely—and many poor "koons" have been vanquished by the sharp point of their twoedged grey goose quilt, and their retiring will be much

> If their vanquished foes should make an inroad upor the new editor, they will find him a sharp-shooter, and

STATE SENTINEL .- We have received several numpers of the Sentinel since it has passed into the hands of Hon. Wm. J. Brown & Son. It is conducted with spirit and energy, and we doubt not will do good service

TThe State Sentinel of the 1st instant comes out editor takes the right ground, and should receive the support a State paper is entitled to.—Democratic Pharos.

"AID AND COMFORT."-We notice by the arrival of the State Sentiael, that our whig friends in Indiana, can have a chance of taking a bit of conversation with ·Billy Brown," through the columns of that journal From the tone of the introductory, we do not think he will need the aid of "two papers" other than the Scati nel, to defend his acts. It makes a fair appearance, and promises to be the Sentinel over the rights of the peoan efficient and strong writer. Speed the work, and give the ever wakeful Sentinel his due .- Huntington

Indeed, sir, from the signs of the times, it is very evident that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent that the people of the United States generally are dent to the bill. It was then reserved to the United States generally are dent to the bill. The Senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The Senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The Senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The Senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The Senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The senate bill the senate bill to establish a State of the United States generally are dent to the bill. The senate bill the senate

The following extract from the "Editor's First Speech," we endorse fully, applying, as it does, with so means, that can possibly be adopted, for the abolition of much force, in certain locations we wot of. Read it; the African slave trade, and for the introduction—which is not less important—of civilization and Christianity of a national and local character, which it will be imamong the barbarous tribes of this continent. Nor is this all which colonization is destined to accomplish, and in which the people of the United States, I know, feel an interest. Colonization is raising a class of persons, an interest. Colonization is raising a class of persons, long degraded in consequence of their peculiar situation, new isms upon our time-honored creed, will meet no to the position and dignity of men in their father land. support from me, as an Editor. Those who are not for Therefore, in my humble opinion, Liberia also ought to be sustained by the American people as an asylum for this class. They must come to Liberia; and the U.S. Government, and State Governments will have to assist Goshen Democrat.

support from me, as an Editor. Those who are not for possessed of any great personal beauty, her features are very regular, and she appears very prepossessing in appearance. She wore a pale blue silk bonnet, covered with lace, a slate colored dress, trimmed with gimp, and

INDIANA STATE SENTINEL .- Two or three numbers of the Sentinel, under its new editor, Wm. J. Brown, eady been mooted in England. I have received several have reached our table. Barring rather too strong a streak of radical locofocoism, the paper will pass very squadron on this coast, and what would be the probable tor, decidedly well put together. Aside from politics the sheet is rather attractive and interesting.—Wabash

IT The first two numbers of the Indiana State Sentinel, under the editorial management of W. J. Brown, not be surprised if it exceeded that figure. have reached us. Though in politics it is characteristic of its editor, yet from seeing in its columns notices of public improvements in parts of the State in which Indianapolis is not directly interested, (an unusual thing for the Sentinel,) we fondly trust it is hereafter to be, what its name would indicate, a State paper, and not a mere local, picayune concern.—Bloomington Herald.

I Wm. J. & Austin H. Brown have become the editors of the Indiana State Sentinel. The former will b

Wm. J. Brown is known to be an able and fearless decess in their ardnous duties and enterprise .- Shelbyville LTThe State Sentinel has considerably improved since the Editorial change. In the pioneer days of democracy, in Indiana, none labored more devotedly, or did more for the party, than the Chapmans; but, of late years, their efforts began to flag; and we are persuaded that a consciousness of this fact induced the late proprietors to dispose of the establishment. We wish the Sentiael will be finished by the 4th of July next, and the cars indant success .- Democratic Clarion .

INDIANA STATE SENTINEL .- This excellent journal party organ .- Greensburgh Clarion.

INDIANA STATE SENTINEL .- This paper now come to us in a new dress, and is positively one of the best looking papers in the West. And, besides being inferior to none in mechanical execution, it reads according to a new edition of her Poems, now in press by Ticknor seats in the House from New Mexico and Utah, be al-Gunter, and no small licks at that .- Brookville Dem.

INDIANA STATE SENTINEL.—We yesterday received the Indiana State Sentinel in an entirely new and very neat dress, containing a large amount of valuable and interesting matter. In the absence of Mr. Brown, the editorial department is under the management of N to the traveller, as well as to those transporting merchandise and produce, between the East and 28th August, he says:

some. Success to the improvements.—Peoples Friend, Covington.

OF By the last Indiana State Sentiacl we see that the Hon. Wm. J. Brown, and Austin H. Brown, son of the former, have become the owners and provides of the owners of Presbyterian Church on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, and will be opened with a sermon by Charles White, D. D., Moderator of the last Synod.

The Synod will continue in session four or five days. Its meetings will all be public. The evenings will be occupied with the anniversaries of the difference of the first of Patron Speed. White, the president, is now in the city of New York, on business connected with this project. The Craw fordsville and Lafayette railroad is also in a state of forwardness, and in all probability will be completed in twelve months. With the advantages these works will give this place, it is destined to rival the most important to be offered to contractors early hext month. Mr. White, the president, is now in the city of New York, on business connected with this project. The Craw fordsville and Lafayette railroad is also in a state of forwardness, and in all probability will be completed in twelve months. With the advantages these works will give this place, it is destined to rival the most important to be offered to contractors early hext month. Mr. White, the president, is now in the city of New York, on business connected with this project. The Craw for deville and Lafayette railroad is also in a state of forwardness, and in all probability will be completed in twelve months. With the advantages these works will give this place, it is destined to rival the most important to be democrated to read the city of New York, on business connected with the project. The Craw for the Craw for the Craw for the Connected to the Mis
This direct central line from the Atlantic to the Mis Sissippi passing through our city, must when completed in the city of New York, on business connected with the most indicated to read the city of New York, on business connected with the most indicated to read the city of New York, on business connected with the difference of New York, when the city of New York, on business connected with the propose of New York, when the city of New York, on business connected w

If The Indiana State Sentinel is now edited by Mr.

IT The State Sentinel has appeared in an entire new dress,—a very great addition to its appearance. The Sentinel is an able Democratic paper, and we hope to see it sustained as it deserves.—Rushville Jacksonian.

THE INDIANA STATE SENTINEL .- The Sentinel cor

energy of a new business. It comes fully up to what we regard a proper standard, in conducting a State organ, and we take pleasure in hailing it as such.—Bloomington Reporter.

STATE SENTINEL.—The Scatinel has made its apavance in a new dress, which becomes it exceedingly ell. We like to see a neat paper, no matter how much we may dislike the principles it advocates .- Rush-head, &c., and presents a very handsome mechanical appearance, all we presume, the evidence of a healthful prosperity.—Wabash Express, Terre Haute.

The Indiana State Sentinel has come out in a new sideration, and which the Speaker had declared out of dress, and is greatly improved in appearance. It is not surpassed in neatness by any paper in the State. It deserves liberal paironage, and will undoubtedly receive second

The Indiana State Sentinel is out in entire new dress, in a much more becoming style than heretofore. Success to it.—Bloomington Reporter.

The Indiana State Sentinel has donned a new dress from head to foot, and looks as bright as a new pin. This paper is becoming more worthy of its title and of patronage than formerly .- Bloomington Herald, Whig.

dress, and now comes to our table looking as bright and The Indiana State Sentinel comes to us in a new and very becoming dress. - Louisville Courier, Ky.

It appears that we are not alone in our opinion of W. R. Ellis, the brother of the Auditor of State and late editor of the Goshen Democrat. The Logansport Pharos, one of the best Democratic papers north of the Wabash, says:

"We rejoice to see that the Goshen Democrat has passed from the hands of W. R. Ellis, who has had the ontrol of it since Dr. Ellis was elected Auditor of State. The new proprietors are Messrs. Emrick & Bouton. We like their Salutatory, and hope that their course will heal up the divisions which exist among the Democracy of Old Elkhart."

We most cordially unite in the hope that such may be the result, and that no Democrat will wait for his brother, who may have been temporarily themselves "done Brown" in less than no time .- War- estranged from him, to give him the right hand of fellowship, but march up and do it himself.

Rising Sun Herald.

We have received the first number of a paper published at Rising Sun, bearing the above name which takes the place of the "True Whig." The under the control of Messrs. Browns. In his debut the "Herald" is edited by W. T. Pepper, is neutral in politics, and neat in its typographical appearance. Mr. Pepper has the ability to make it a good paper.

Jenny Lind.

The New York Sun gives the following account o the arrival of the "Swedish Nightingale." If she can sing like a bird, it is no reason our people should make fools of themselves. She is a woman, how-This will be done, for he has the ability to make ever-rather rather good looking than otherwise, and that is enough to make every American an admirer.

When the Atlantic reached her wharf the streets in ed that the House proceed to consider the business on it may improve with age. In a few years you will have a library of useful knowledge; an encyclopedia have a library of useful knowledge; and condemns the politics of the new Demo becoming daily more and more impressed with the imbecoming daily more and more impressed with the importance of colonization—especially as a means for the portance of colonization—especially as a means for the latest the colonization and the colonization very appropriately interwoven among them. A line of matting, from the gang-way to a new and very pretty carriage, expressly provided for Miss Lind's use during her stay in the country, had also been laid down; and many other little arrangements made evincing considerable taste. A temporary gate had been erected across tived—yeas 86, mays 116, the pier to keep back the crowd until after the debarka-

Our lady readers will doubtless be pleased with a short description of her dress and appearance, on landing. She looked remarkably well, and although not a brown broad-cloth cloak, faced with velvet."

The Cincinnati Commercial says, that from the information obtained from the census Marshals, well. Its editorials and selections form readable mat. so far as they have progressed, and from the returns territorial bill-year 97, nays 85. of Wards already completed, the population of the City proper will not fall much short of ONE HUN-DRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND, and we should > ADVERTISING .- Some men who know enough to advertise are yet so narrow as to confine their advertisements to journals of their own ereed or party. If they do not choose to trade with any but men of like faith, this is United States. wise; but if they desire to have the whole public for customers, it is otherwise.

The above extract is from a prize essay written by Horace Greeley, on "advertising and its benefits to business men," and is true to the letter.

The census of Cleveland, Ohio, just taken, makes the population of that city, in round numbers, 17,600-an increase in the last ten years of

Maj. Ellston has just returned from the East

Twenty miles of the Plank Road between Crawfordsville and Lafayette are completed, and the

Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, one of the editors of Peterson's Ladies' National Magazine, was at Paris at last accounts on her way to St. Petersburg.

Grace Greenwood is in Boston superintending

O'A company of Germans have commenced the manufacture of porcelain at Wilmington, Del.

OF It is said that gold has been found in the quartz nays 77. rock of the Lake Superior country. Another elopement-a fair damsel and a hotel cook-is all the talk in New Orleans just now. THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.-In the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, made to the Senate on the 3d of last month, we find the following at Saturday's prices. Groceries unchanged. estimate of the omount of matter franked by members

THIRST FOR LIQUOR .- There is an old man in Pittsburgh, who is so passionately devoted to the bottle, that being reduced to poverty, he rushes into private houses where he thinks the families will be likely to be provided

The State St

One of the city papers relates that a youngster in one of the public schools, was reading this verse in the New Testament. "And he saw Abraham afar off with Lazarus in his bosom." The boy spelled it thus: " And he saw-a-broom affar-off-with-leather-ears-in-Boston."

IJIn England the driver of each locomotive, before JENKY's prize song. our next.

Our files are crowded with communications and our friends must bear with us.

Our files are with us.

Our files are crowded with communications and our friends must bear with us.

Our files are crowded with communications and our friends must bear with us.

Our files are crowded with communications and our friends must bear with us.

Our files are crowded with communications and our friends must be are agreeably disappointed, and will not hesitate to give our unqualified approbation to its contents. Its tone is healthy, and indicates the be observed whether or not he is perfectly sober.

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

(From the Mudison Papers.] WASHINGTON, Sept. 6, 8 P. M. Yesterday, after the vote refusing to submit the Texas bill, as amended, to a third reading, Mr. Howard moved a reconsideration of the vote; which the Chair decided out of order. The Speaker, to-day, announced the appeal to be the Mr. Howard made some remarks, in which he exined that he made his appeal from the fact that the bill on which the vote was reconsidered yesterday was different from the bill on which he had moved a recon-

He therefore called the previous question, which was seconded—yeas 102, pays 56—the question taken on the ion of the Chair to stand as the judgment of the

The vote refusing to order the Texas boundary bill to a third reading was then reconsidered, and the bill, as amended by Mr. Boyd, was ordered to a third reading -yeas 108, nays 98. The question on the decision of the Chair being sus tained, &c., was decided negatively—yeas 83, navs 120.

The House then reconsidered the vote refusing to order the bill to a third reading, and the question upon or-ITThe State Sentinel has at length donned its new dering the bill, as amended yesterday, to a third reading It was an exciting time and much confusion prevailed The galleries and lobbies were filled with anxious spectators. When the clerk commenced calling the roll the noise ceased and seldom have we known so much quie As the roll-call continued there was a movement all over the House and every proceeding was watched with anxiety. When Mr. Howard, of Texas, was called and voted aye applause was commenced, but silence was promptly restored by the Speaker. But few members were in their seats, many having come to the area in front of the clerk's desk. There was

The Speaker exerted himself vigorously to quell the disorder which had broken out afresh, and then commenced announcing the result, which was-year 108,

Immediately succeeding this, there was clapping of hands, whistling, and stamping in the galleries, and applause on the floor.

"Order," "order," resounded in every direction. The Speaker knocked lustily with his hammer, and pices were heard saying "let them clap." The excitement having subsided, the Speaker said the juestion was on the third reading of the bill. Mr. Burt moved to lay the bill on the table, which was disagreed to-yeas 97, nays 108. The bill was then passed-yeas 107, navs 97. Immediately after amending the title of the bill the House adjourned at 3 o'clock.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6, P. M. cessful competitor for the New York Tribune, is the suc-for Jenny Lind. Bayard Taylor, of the New York Tril

The Hibernia was off Boston light about 2 o'elock NEW YORK, Sept. 7. The first Jenny Lind concert ticket has been sold. It was knocked down to Mr. Genin T. Hatter, at two hundred and twentyfive dollars, amidst tremendo and excitement. Afterward they sold at prices varying from ten to fifteen dollars. WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.

House .- Mr. Richardson resumed his speech in support of the majority report of the Ewing investigating He was followed by Mr. Vinton in reply,
The morning hour having expired, Mr. Robinson mov

The Senate bill to establish a State government for Mr. Boyd moved to amend by annexing the Utah bill.

Mr. Vinton raised a point of order, but the Speaker decided the amendment to be in order. Mr. Vinton appealed from the decision of the Chair, and the yeas and nays were called on the appeal. The question, shall the Chair be sustained, was nega-

Mr. Boyd's amendment was declared out of order, and, after further ineffectual attempts to amend the Sen-ate California bill, it was ordered to be read a third time -yeas 151, navs 57. The bill was then passed-year 150, navs 56. The House then went into committee and took up the Senate hill establishing a territorial government for Utah.

Attempts to insert the Wilmot Proviso were rejected. Mr. Stevens moved to strike out the amendment providing that when said territory shall apply for admission as a State, it shall be admitted with or without slavery. Mr. Stevens's motion was lost-59 to 85. Several ineffectual attempts were made to amend

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7. Texas News .- The joint committee of the Legislature has reported in favor of raising three thousand troops to march forward to Santa Fe.

when the committee rose and the House passed the Utah

Pearce's Senate bill bad been received at Austin. It was said the Legislature possessed no authority to dis-pose of territory and that the subject must be referred to popular suffrage.

Gen. Rusk has been re-elected to the Senate of the WASHINGTON, Sept. 9, 1850. SENATE.-The Texas and New Mexico omnibus was received from the House pending the morning business.

Mr. Douglass stated that the amendment of the House was to the Senate's New Mexico bill, with these lines added, providing that no citizen shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, except upon the judgment of his It was moved to amend by substituting person for citizen, and due course of law for judgment of his peers. Mr. Chase moved that it be rejected.

The amendment of the House was then concurred in -ayes 30, noes 10-as follows:
Ayes-Atchison, Badger, Bell, Berrien, Bright, Cass, Clay, Dawson, Dickinson. Dodge of Iowa, Douglass, Downs, Felch, Foote, Houston, Jones, King, Mangum, Morton, Norris, Pratt, Rusk, Sebastian, Shields, Smith Spruance, Sturgeon, Underwood. Noes-Baldwin, Benton, Chase, Davis of Mass., Dodge of Wis., Ewing, Hamlin, Seward, Upham

In the House of Representatives a resolution, after discussion, was adopted providing for an adjournment of Congress sine die, on this day three weeks, 30th Sept., ayes 117, noes 61.

The Speaker signed the California bill; and Mr. Olds offered an ame dment that the Senators and Representatives from California shall receive the same mileage as the delegate from Oregon.

Mr. Olds amendment was adopted with a further amendment that Babbitt and Smith, late claimants for lowed a per diem of five dollars from the time of their arrival in Washington till their claims were rejected, and that they be allowed two dollars each day for their

Thus amended the bill was subsequently reported to the House and the vote on its passage was-yeas 78 The Speaker voted in the negative, thus making a tie and the bill was rejected.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9. Flour better than on Saturday; no change of note in Wheat for milling at 98 cents for fair new Ohio. Corn in fair demand and supplies small. Provisions-Pork heavy with small sales. Lard steady

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9, 8 p. m. Flour quiet and receipts light; prices ranged from $3 50 to $3 60. ITA gentleman says he has become so weak from dissipation that he is now "unable to raise a five dollar bill." The Boston Post merely makes a note of this A SIMPLE RULE .- To ascertain the length of the day with spirits for medical purposes, and pretending that he has been attacked by cholera, begs for brandy. He has been ascertained to have hoaxed, in this manner, six sun's rising, which gives the length of the night, and double the time of the setting, which gives the length of

The furniture and paintings in Jenny Lind's apartments in the Irving House, are represented as having cost only $7,000. All humbug, we presume.

IF There were more than six hundred competitors for

A smart boy that, who asked his father what kind